Employers must record H1N1 Cases on OSHA Logs in some instances

Employers are responsible for recording cases of 2009 H1N1 illness if all of the following requirements are met: (1) the case is a confirmed case of 2009 H1N1 illness as defined by CDC; (2) the case is work-related as defined by 1904.5; and (3) the case involves one or more of the recording criteria set forth in 1904.7 (e.g., medical treatment, days away from work). Per CPL-02-02-075.

Note: This recording criteria applies to all establishments covered by PART 1904.

Call your CESA Safety Contact if you need any guidance on a specific situation.
